EXECUSIVE AND SENATE At test the president has done a thing which approve and sustain. This is his action in in forming the senate that he will not give the reasons why he has removed certain officials. They know he has removed these persons by cause they are republicans and has appointed others because they are democrate; and the knowledge is enough. They are not indeed to be censured for statining him on this pair but it is curious to note that he has not as yet been able to unite his party or get is clear approved of anything except in this matter of giving It the offices. Though he has not said in plan words that he thinks democrate entired to the offices under a democrate an nimetality, they interpret his refusal to rive the squata his 'rea sone" as equivalent to such declaration, to some extent at least; and therefore they "cordially till, if he would go f ther and remove all re

The change, which is conspl cuous at San Francisco, is in progress in a greater or ess degree at over it e coast. In Portland it is now resulte to employ or domes to service almost any runner of women de-sired, and white men are eager for any kind of honest work. There are many who still cherish the old false notions, but there are many more real working men, a e not found among the followers of blathers tree and samps of the Cradlehaugh sinpe There are few employers who do not prefer men of their own rane and blood, all hings else being equal, but too often all things else a e not equal. The Chinese laborer is always efficient in whatever work he undertaket. The white latterer on this coast offen is not. The young men who have grown up in the country have much head transled to habits of industry, and those from the East are often fortune-seekers who accept common labor with a sense of deappointment and discentent. There is, indued, among our laboring community, a contented, hopeful and efficient element but there are enough of the and first named to make white labor, is t may be picked up hap-This is a condition of affairs greatly to the dispublicane at once.

It is undenimble that President Cleveliand has exercised the power of removal much more moderately than was expected. This may as well be admitted. No republican supposed that a nyle republican office holder would be left by this time and the surprise of both parties not believe that he republicans of the senate will gain any advantage for their party by pressso far as to abuse it greatly. They see very many er ublicans still in office. Again, a rigorous at tack upon the president on this subject, mana-tained by the republicans of the senate, would unite and solidify the democratic party in the support. His party, which will agree with him on nothing else, would lay uside its objections to meadministration on matters of real impostance, and rally around him to a man, on the beginning, with a grand flourish of trumps aprile of informed the senate that the printing that he would make removale only for tause, and the life of the senate that the printing pass cast upon all the removal office as a suspaintment of the content that 25000 copies would copies should be premounthat they were found unfaithful, unworth comed for distribution, at a cost of $59,000. Now the question is, How far will the senate fry the matter! Will it bring on a confict in the president? What it is trying to do is in office under bits. But he with not say that Nor would approach come of it if he did. It is just as apparent now as if he were to arow it. He might say plainly that it was the right of
